

I support restriction of the consolidation of media broadcasting to insure competition is retained and that differing views and programming are available to the audience - the true owners of the air waves.